WRITE IT! Write the problem

_____________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________

READ IT! Read the problem carefully. Circle the words the operational words that help you solve the problem.

SHOW YOUR THINKING! (Chart, Picture, Diagram, Skip Count, or more)

EXPLAIN YOUR THINKING! (Rationale) Once you are sure of the answer to the problem, write about it in complete sentences telling how you solved it and what the answer is.

_______________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________